SENIOR CLASS PLAY BEGINS TONIGHT

All College Banquet Set for May 4 "Little Minister" At High School

PEPPY PROGRAM PLANNED BY COUNCIL

Attention, Hopeites! The All-College banquet is on Friday at 6:15 o'clock in the Masonic Temple. If you haven't already purchased your tickets, be sure to do so today, because the committee must know by tonight how many are going. Marie Verduin, general chairman, says, "This year's banquet is going to be one of the shortest and snappiest we've ever had." Betty Goehner is in direct charge of the program, but she's keeping things secret, so you'll have to come if you want to know all about it. It did leak out, though, that the habitual joke-cracker, Professor Raymond, is to give a brief talk. Awards will be presented, too, but nothing will be lengthy.

Don't forget, either, that the All-College banquet is a "dateless" affair so, fellows, you need to buy but one ticket, and girls, don't stay home because you haven't been asked. Let's have everybody out on Friday evening!

MODEL LEAGUE AT ANN ARBOR

On Friday and Saturday, April 20 and 21, the seventh annual model of the League of Nations met at Ann Arbor with representatives from every college in the state.

Five students represented Hope at the league. Harvey Scholten was chairman of the Hope delegation and Elizabeth Kramer, Ruth Ver Hey, Eck Buys, and Charles McLean were the other members.

The purpose of this Model League of Nations is to attempt to bring about an understanding of international affairs. Each school is to represent one or two countries at the league and to act as they would on the committees. Hope College had Norway and Bulgaria to work for in the sessions. Ruth Ver Hey was placed on the Disarmament committee, Elizabeth Kramer on the Minorities committee, and Eck Buys was the speaker on the tariff question for the two countries. Charles McLean had a very difficult role to fulfill in the position as reporter for the Tariff and Trade Bureau committee.

The league elected as president Martin Wagner of the University of Michigan, and Robert W. French secretary general. Mr. French is working on his doctorate degree at the university.

Most of the meetings of the league were held in the First Congregational Church of Ann Arbor, as this place more nearly represents the interior hall of the original League of Nations than any other building in Ann Arbor.

A signal honor was given Hope College when Eck Buys was selected on the temporary committee for adopting next year's program of the league.

SENIORS AWARDED HONORS, POSITION

Another member of the senior class was honored this week when Leon Winstrom, science major, received a scholarship of four hundred dollars from Carnegie Tech. Last week it was announced that Bernard Rottschaefer, also of the science department, had accepted the University of Michigan scholarship, of the three that were offered him.

Miss Gertrude Holleman is the first senior to have received a teaching position. She has accepted a grade school placement at Whitehall, Mich.

Y.W.C.A. PROGRAM

The following schedule for Y.W.C.A. meetings has been planned for the remainder of the semester:

May 8—Mother's Day Meeting—Mrs. Dregman.
May 14—Marion Boot.
May 22—Miss Coburn.
May 29—Setsu Matsunobu.
June 5—Annual Beach Party—Gertrude Holleman.

MISS MEYER IN KAZOO RECITAL

Miss Nella Meyer of the college faculty played in the 5 o'clock musical service of the Congregational Church in Kalamazoo Sunday, April 29th. She was assisted by the choir of the church. Numbers on her program were:

Fantasia in C Minor—Mozart
Thirty-two Variations—Beethoven
Prelude, Fugue, and Variations—Franck

(Miss Meyer was assisted by Harris Meyer, organist, in this selection.)

Impromptu in F Major Op. 36—Chopin
Intermezzo E Flat Minor—Brahms
Sarabande—Debussy
Rhapsody—Dohnanyi

Miss Meyer's program is one of a series to help advertise Hope College in neighboring cities.

PREXY ATTENDS SYNOD MEETING

President Wichers is at present in New York state where he is a representative to the Particular Synod of Albany meeting in Marion, New York. The president's trip to the East climaxes an extensive series of engagements which he has been fulfilling during the past two weeks.

On April 18, Dr. Wichers addressed the Parent Teachers Association of Marion, Mich. He was the guest of the Zeeland high school April 20, and of the Lowell high school at Lansing. The regular service of the Hope Reformed church Sunday evening was in charge of the president, when he lectured on "Hitler and the Church."

President Wichers based his addresses mainly upon educational subjects. All of his addresses were given by request, and though not related to the local college, they did indirectly in interesting students in Hope.

COLLEGE ENTERS POETRY CONTEST

Miss Margaret Dregman and Mr. Sherwood Price will represent Hope in the women's and men's divisions, respectively, of the Michigan Poetry Reading contest to take place at Olivet Friday, May 4. Both entrants are distinguished juniors and "A" students who possess a high appreciation of English literature.

In the first poetry interpretation competition of the Michigan league held last year at Ypsilanti, at which eight schools were represented, the local contestants, Ruth Ver Hey and Eikie Meyer, both competed. All the state colleges and universities except the University of Michigan are allowed to participate in the contests, which are sponsored by the private colleges of the state.

Miss Dregman and Mr. Price were selected from a group of ten entrants in the local elimination contest. The judges included three members of the faculty, Miss Nella Meyer, Miss Metta Ross, and Mr. De Graff, and Miss Ethelyn Metz and Mrs. Edward Yeomans of this city.

Dr. Nykerk coached all entrants and is meeting the two winners (Continued on Page 2)

PROSPECTIVE STUDENTS ENTERTAINED BY COLLEGE

374 High School Seniors From Grand Rapids Visit Campus

Hope college was host to 374 students of the Grand Rapids Junior college and of the upper classes in the Grand Rapids high schools Friday, April 27. The idea of entertaining prospective Hopeites in such a manner is a novel one and is intended to create a wider interest in the college.

After making a tour of the campus and fraternity houses, the guests were given a dinner at the Masonic Temple. Rev. Nicholas Boer, president of the Board of Trustees, pronounced the invocation. Addresses on some of the various departmental activities of the college followed with Dr. Wichers presiding. Christian Walvoord, president of the student council, gave the welcome, and representatives Gertrude Holleman, Y. W. C. A.; James Nettinga, Y. M. C. A.; Ruth Ver Hey, oratory; Henry Kuizenga, Phi Kappa Delta; Gerald Bonnette, athletics; Murray K. Rogers, publications; and Marc Brouwer, societies, gave short talks. Each student was presented with a souvenir wooden shoe.

W. N. DANNER IS CHAPEL SPEAKER

Friday morning the Hope college student body was addressed by Rev. W. N. Danner, secretary of the Mission for Lepers. Rev. Danner held the attention of the student body for the most of the first hour with his interesting description of the leper conditions in the world today. He told of the surprising number of cases recently found in the United States, as well as of the large number to be found in the less civilized parts of the world.

Dr. Danner had a great number of pictures of lepers and leper colonies that he showed to the student body. The pictures showing the wonderful cures effected, and also those of the hospitals and colonies now established were especially interesting because they so clearly depicted the great progress already made by organizations such as the one which Rev. Danner represented.

VISITORS LIKE "HEART BEATS"

Last Friday the biology laboratories were open to the high school students from Grand Rapids, who were very much interested in the graphic record which was being made of the heart beat of a turtle. The museum was also open. It is the intention of the biology department to have the museum open one or two days each week from now until the end of the school year.

GROUPS VISIT HIGH SCHOOLS

Professor E. Paul McLean, William Vander Ven, Jack Vander Meulen, and Ruth Van Oss visited the Newaygo High school last Thursday. Vander Ven, accompanied by Ruth Van Oss, rendered several vocal solos, and Vander Meulen played selections on the violin. Professor McLean then spoke to the students on the advantages of Hope college.

The college has sponsored numerous trips of this type recently in an attempt to gain new members for next year's student body. A very active schedule taking in most of the more important high schools in this part of the state, is being carried out.

TRUSTEES HOLD ANNUAL MEET

Members of the board of trustees of Hope college convened in Winants chapel for the regular annual sessions last Wednesday. Reports of the president, the treasurer and the executive committee were filed and other routine business was transacted. Rev. Nicholas Boer of Grand Rapids, presided over the group of twenty-two attending members. The board has scheduled its final meeting of the year for June 19, the day before commencement exercises are to be held.

SARAH LACEY GIVEN MEDAL

Miss Sarah Lacey, music student at the University of Michigan, who formerly studied in the Hope College music department, has been honored by being awarded the Stanley medal. President Wynand Wichers announced at the concert of the combined choral groups last Friday night.

This award has been made only seven times since 1923, and is offered for outstanding work in practical music. Among others who have received it are Dallis Frantz, in 1930, and James C. Pfohl, in 1933. Miss Lacey, who has studied at the university for the last two years, has also been elected to the Phi Kappa Phi, national honorary society, the membership of which is made up of those chosen from the highest ranking ten per cent in each of the various schools.

BROWNING GROUP REVIVES CUSTOM

An interesting program has been arranged for the Browning party, Monday, May 7, in Winants chapel at 7:30 o'clock. Members of Dr. Nykerk's Browning and Shakespeare classes as well as those of last semester's Tennyson group, and other guests will attend this meeting, which falls on Browning's birthday.

Readings from Browning will be given by several students and Miss Ethelyn Metz. Lyrics set to music will be sung by students. The main feature of the musical section will be Mrs. D.B.K. Van Raalte, Jr.'s interpretation of some half dozen Browning numbers. She will be accompanied by Mrs. Helen Karsten, of the college faculty. Mrs. Karsten, will in addition offer for the first time, in manuscript form, her musical setting of "Meeting at Night."

COLLEGE STUDENTS, SECRETARY INJURED

During the last few weeks several accidents have involved people prominent about the campus. On Monday, April 23, Cornelia Stryker, while en route to Cassopolis, Mich., for a college program, suffered a compound fracture of her right arm in an accident in which Professor E. Winter's car was badly damaged.

On Tuesday, April 24, Mrs. Zwemer, of the college office, received severe cuts and injuries when she was struck by a Holland motorcycle policeman in pursuit of a law violator. Mina Becker was also severely bruised in an automobile accident a short time ago.

The combined glee clubs of the Hope College High school are working on the operetta "Robin Hood." The date has not yet been set.

SHIRLEY PAYNE, J. HENDERSON, DIRECTORS

Suppose you weren't quite sure whether you were married to a ragged English gypsy or to the daughter of a distinguished Scottish Lord. Well, you'd be as Edward Damson is in "The Little Minister," which opens at the Holland High School auditorium tonight for a two-night run under the direction of Miss Shirley Payne, assisted by John Henderson.

If actual work put into a drama is any indication of the quality of the finished product, then the dramatization of Sir James Barrie's famous novel should be an unqualified success. As it is a "costume" play much research was necessary to guarantee authenticity of dress and properties. Since the action takes place in Scotland, several members of the cast have been diligently rolling their "r's".

Anne Jackson is cast as Babbie, the tiny heroine, who causes nearly all the trouble in the weaving town of Thrums a hundred years ago. It is she who gives Edward Damson, in the title role, so much worry over his marital status. Paul Klein plays the part of Lord Rintoul, Babbie's stern, stubborn father.

In spite of the fact that he is planning to enter the ministry, Henry Van Raalte makes a remarkably detestable villain, in Captain Halliwell, the almost husband of Babbie.

The action of the play centers around the uprising of the weavers of the town of Thrums against the manufacturers, who are nearly starving them. Soldiers are sent to quell the rebellion, and from then on events move very rapidly to the surprising climax. The Little Minister, although only nominal pastor to his fold of honest weavers, cannot escape being involved in the mesh of circumstances, especially after he meets Babbie, the gypsy.

Louis Cotts gives a very good impersonation of Tammam Whammond, a grim Presbyterian deacon, who is second only to Gavin Disheart, the Little Minister, in power over the tiny congregation. Sneaky Hobart (Marvin Kuizenga), Andrew Maelmaker (Christian Walvoord), Rob Dow (James Nettinga), and Silva Tosh (Melvin Dole), make extremely human parishioners. Linden Lindsey plays the part of Joe Cruickshanks, the (Continued on Page Two)

NEW LEAGUE IS ORGANIZED

The Christian Workers League, a coalition of the Student Volunteer Band and the Divinity Guild, held its first regular meeting Friday, April 27.

The most important business consisted of the election of officers. The president of the newly formed organization is Marvin Schaaap, while Adrienne Tyssen will serve as vice-president. Beatrice Boot was elected secretary, and Adrian DeYoung was chosen treasurer. This recently created league will practically eliminate the two separate organizations, one for prospective ministers and the other for future missionaries, which heretofore existed. Instead of making a practical study of missionary and ministerial work, the league will spend most of its time in weekly devotional periods and in Bible study.

The speaker at the initial meeting of the group was Rev. Monsma. The title of his talk was "Kingdom Workers."

CAMPUS IMPROVEMENTS

There are times when decisions are best made, when courses of action are best determined—at the outset of an undertaking. At present, Hope College is confronted by alternatives in the construction work now in progress on the campus.

In order that this work may be saved a measure of usefulness it otherwise could not possibly have, we suggest the consideration of two proposals:

1. That the running track now being constructed be modified in shape, especially at the eastern end, making use of more gradual turns. The present plans do not permit of fair competition at distances up to one mile.

2. That the shortsightedness now being alleviated by the relocation of the fences on the tennis courts, be more fully remedied by putting in a door on the east side in order that balls may be more readily retrieved. The cost would be negligible; the benefit very worthwhile.

"Y" NEWS

"Mountain Peaks" was the topic of Dorothea Van Saun's talk at the April 17 Y.W. meeting. Special music was offered by Lois Geerds, who played a piano selection. Christine Ver Hulst lead in the singing. Kathleen Donahue spoke on "The Word" at the Y.W. meeting of April 24. Dorothy Steketee and Geneva Kleinheksel, accompanied by Joan Kleinheksel, sang a duet. Marie Dalman and Ruth Fisher took charge of the devotions. An open discussion was held on the topic of the evening before the meeting was closed.

Changes in the social and economic structure of the world were discussed by Mr. C. Vander Meulen in his talk on "Social Trends" at the Y.M.C.A. meeting April 17.

Henry Van Raalte led the song service, which was followed by the reading of the scripture by Adrian De Young and a series of sentence prayers. Two vocal selections were rendered by a freshman quartet composed of Spencer Hulse, Renier Papegaay, Hubert Heyboer, and Charles Steketee.

The Y.M.C.A. opened its meeting Tuesday, April 27, with a song service led by Milton Spaan, after which Elkie Meyer read scripture and called for sentence prayers. Reuben Ten Haken and Gerrit Reintjes blended their voices in a duet, "The Ninety and Nine." The speaker of the evening was Mrs. James Wayer, who gave an interesting talk on the topic, "Rethinking Missions in the Light of Calvary."

three times a week. The thirty-seven selections from which representatives of the various schools may choose their readings include ten from Robert Browning, one from Elizabeth Barrett Browning, four from Tennyson, three from Shakespeare, two from Shelley, one from Keats, one from Kipling, and the remainder from the "lesser choir."

The elimination for both the women's and men's division at Olivet are scheduled for 2 o'clock Friday afternoon. A festival will be held at 8 o'clock in the evening, at which time the winners will compete and the final selections will be made. A discussion by the professors in charge covering the range and criteria of poetry reading will follow.

The value of interscholastic competition in poetry reading has, during the past few years, become quite universally recognized in educational circles. A poetry speaking contest in England has been a very successful series of events in for the past seven years. Three years ago a similar national contest was inaugurated in this country by Northwestern university in Evanston, Ill. Two Michigan schools were represented, Hope college and the University of Michigan, the former winning a second and a fourth place, and the University of Michigan a first.

This rivalry is intended to engender in the studentry a taste for poetry, which has increased steadily during the last years. Dr. Nykerk, in a statement to the Anchor, places vocal interpretation of literature of fundamental importance: "In my judgment it will not be long before no one can become a professor of English literature who is not an adept in the vocal interpretation of literature, both prose and verse."

atheistic mole-catcher, while Fred Honhart is cast as Micah, Rob Dow's little boy.

In feminine roles, there are Jewel Winslow as Felice, Babbie's vivacious French maid, Mildred Essenburg as the aged Nanny Webster, and Joan Walvoord, as Jean.

Among the other players are Preston Van Kolken as the Cockney Sergeant Davidson, and Willard Ripley, as Thwaites, the butler, as well as redcoats, weavers, and weavers' wives.

FRATERS, COSMOS SERENADE DORM

It was on the midnight of Thursday, April 26, that the Cosmos and Fraters presented their annual joint serenade in the court of Voorhees Hall. Following the official song of each fraternity, Frater President James Nettinga, and Cosmos President Linden Lindsay offered appropriate opening compliments. Then the Fraternal chorus, featuring Bennie Moerdyke as trumpet soloist, presented "Lazybones." After this group number the Cosmos harmony boys, Neckers and Douma, offered their bit of love-making to the galleries. The atmosphere, however, was cleared somewhat when Cosmos Onga employed milder means of serenading, this time playing several tunes on his guitar and harmonica. But Fraters Van Kolken and especially Nettinga had an important message to sing, and all the fair co-eds thrilled to hear such harmony from such "lovers." Next the entire group joined in a number, before it was time to offer one more a "good-nite ladies." Another Cosmos-Frater serenade had become history.

STUDENTS ENTER WRITING CONTESTS

Stuart Gross and Roger Leestma have entered a short story contest offered by the "Story Magazine" of New York. This publication draws stories from the entire United States. The contest was open to all college students and only two entrants are allowed from each school. Both of Hope's entrants are members of the sophomore class.

"Sauce for the Goose," was the title of the story entered by Mr. Gross. Mr. Leestma's story was entitled "The Wooden Rattle."

The first prize is one hundred dollars; the second is fifty dollars.

The Atlantic Monthly is offering prizes for the best essay submitted by a college student. Miss Ross has selected two, which she submitted as representative essays of Hope college. Those sent to the magazine were written by Miss Helena Visscher and Mr. Stuart Gross. The prizes offered by this contest are: A summer at Bread-loaf in Vermont and fifty dollars; the instructor of the person who wins the contest also receives a scholarship at the same school.

Miss Visscher's essay is entitled "My Code," and that of Mr. Gross "Are We the Lost Generation?"

ALUMNI NEWS

Rev. Josias Meulendyke of Rochester, N. Y. is the oldest living alumnus of Hope College. Next month will mark the sixty-first anniversary of his graduation. At one time Rev. Meulendyke was pastor of the Ebenezer Reformed church at East Holland but he retired from that pastorate several years ago. He is also the oldest living graduate of Western Theological Seminary.

Among the members of the Board of Trustees who dined at Voorhees Hall on Wednesday, April 25th, were Rev. B. Van Heuvelen, Class of 1899, Rev. N. Boer, Class of 1897, Rev. C. H. Spaan, Class of 1899, Prof. J. Sterenberg, Class of 1901, Rev. A. De Young, Class of 1900, and Rev. F. B. Mansen, Class of 1909.

Walvoord Twins Engaged Friday

Hope's only twins have a way of doing the same thing at the same time. The engagements of Student Council President Christian Walvoord and Marie Verduin and of Julia Walvoord and Herbert Van Wyk took place simultaneously Friday. The Walvoord pair entered the world together and have thus far gone through school together. At the same time last term Julia and Chris were presidents of their respective societies, Delphi and Fraternal.

Mr. Van Wyk is a second-year student in the Western Theological seminary of this city, while the other three of the recently betrothed are rounding out colorful careers at college. Miss Walvoord and Miss Verduin are seeking teaching positions for the ensuing year. Mr. Walvoord plans to enter Western Theological seminary in the fall.

Deon Dekker, sophomore, has recently left school to accept a position with the Illinois Construction Co. of Chicago and is at present stationed at Kalamazoo. Deon, who was the outstanding Democrat of the school and one of the leaders of the local Young Democrats Association, is continuing his activities in Kazoo.

BETWEEN THE LINES

It is common report that the highways leading from Holland have been literally strewn with gore, broken glass, and battered hitch-hikers, during the last few weeks. These distressing coincidences are easy to understand when we consider that gentle spring, with her sweltering weather, verdant foliage, and Dillinger in every up-to-date, publicity-loving town in the country, have obliged people to drive around to cool off and avoid the gangsters.

Not to be pessimistic, however, some of the more fortunate of our college notables like Jewel and John have been enjoying the balmy breezes of Lake Michigan and all points east, west, north and south. We notice, also, how much like a Rolls-Royce Earl's roadster looks with Mademoiselle Pierrepont seated inside. This charming phenomenon is nothing more than the harmonious combination of eastern swank and Zeeland stoicism. In an interview with Mademoiselle, your correspondent was told that the platonic friendship (which she sticks to rigidly) is greatly to be preferred in college. We take it platonic refers chiefly to Ford roadsters, theaters, and the drug store. Well, there's something for you emotional romancers to mull over.

Meanwhile, spring fever has played havoc in divers places around the campus. With the first developments of two-lips, freshman numerals began to disappear. Ah, sweet mystery of life! And Anne and Eddie are so in love with "The Little Minister" that they dramatize off stage. Oh, yes, brethren and sisters of the frozen north, spring is here whether you like it or not. A friend remarked the other night, for instance, on how gray the chapel looked by moonlight. As a matter of fact, it looks gray in the daytime as well, but what he actually meant was, I am sure, how beautiful an April moon can be. But if he had been more confiding, he would have confessed that any moon looks a good deal more beautiful from Ottawa Beach than from Twelfth and College.

Hope Golfers Easily Defeat Hillsdale

SPORT REALM

By Jay Bush

The tennis team has extended a special invitation to Coach Hinga to come out and watch their practice some afternoon.

Hillsdale, with two big innings, defeated Findlay College 11-4 in baseball. Littsworth, pitching the first seven frames, was in top form, allowing no runs and three widely scattered hits. Randals of the Dales chased three runs across the plate in the first inning with a terrific smash over the left field embankment.

No one seems to know just when the tennis courts and football field will be completed. The only organization which is informed on the matter is the PWA, and they are quite hazy about most things. Watch!

Western State Frosh whipped our tennis team last Friday. Although Vande Poel won his second match in succession, the outstanding play of the afternoon was between Don Vanden Belt and Carl Fisher, Detroit's city champion of last year. Fisher won the match 6-0, 6-2, the sets being hard fought, with plenty of long volleys.

The golf team sat on Albion 8-4 last week. Timmer of Hope was low man with a 79. The boys were much improved over the Grand Rapids match, but are not yet in top form.

With only two losses through graduation, Hillsdale is looking forward to another championship in football this year as they expect again to have the most powerful team in the M.I.A.A.

HOPE, ALBION SHARE HONORS IN CONTESTS

Led by Ben Timmer, the Hope College golf team cinched its opening conference meet by downing the Albion squad 8-4 at the Albion links. The Methodist netters saved the day from complete disaster by taking the measure of Hope team, 4-3.

Timmer, shooting a brilliant 78, had little trouble in disposing of Albion's No. 1 man, Merritt, by a 3-0 score. Kruizenga, the only new varsity member, shone in defeating Gerhart of Albion and in doing so annexed three more points for Hope. Paalman, shooting an 85, and Scholten, a 90, opposed Fowler and Dice, each gaining a point for Hope.

The Albion tennis team evened things up by taking four matches, three singles and one doubles, to defeat Hope 4-3. Lindsey and Vande Poel each took their singles and doubles match to account for Hope's three points. Leland's match with Prettyman, which Prettyman took, was the outstanding engagement of the afternoon, all three sets going to 6-4.

The scores: Singles—Fischer, Albion, d. Visscher, Hope, 6-4, 6-4; Lange, Albion, d. Vanden Belt, Hope, 6-1, 6-3; Prettyman, Albion, d. Leland, Hope, 4-6, 6-4, 6-4; Vande Poel, hope, d. Hayden, Albion, 2-6, 6-2, 6-2.

HOPE NETTERS DEFEAT DALES

A strong wind did not stop the Hope netters from taking the first victory of the season, when the Orange and Blue squad drubbed the Hillsdale delegation 7 to 0 last Saturday afternoon at the Holland Country Club courts.

Don Vanden Belt, Hope captain and No. 1 man, started the afternoon of victory in which the Dutchmen lost but one set, when he stroked his way to an easy 6-3, 6-1 triumph over Wells. With Gibson as his victim, Visscher took his match 6-3, 6-2. Although the wind raised havoc with many of the shots Leland emerged victorious in a three-set match by scores of 2-6, 6-0, 7-5. Two love sets was the manner in which Lindsey treated his opponent, while Vande Poel completed the singles engagements with a 6-1, 6-2 win over Clark.

In the doubles Vanden Belt and Leland paired off to whip the Hillsdale No. 1 doubles team of Wells and Gibson, 6-0, 6-4. Visscher and Lindsey represented Hope in the second doubles contest and kept the slate clean for the afternoon by taking two straight sets.

The next match for the tennis team is next Friday when the Western State freshmen visit Holland for a return match.

The hard-working, studious students in the library had a moment's relaxation last week when the flagpole painter slipped and slid part way down the pole. Jim Nettinga was actually moved to tears.

TENNIS COURTS ARE IMPROVED

Work is progressing on the college tennis courts in improving them so that they may be used for intercollegiate matches for the remainder of the season.

The side fences, which were too close to the sidelines to permit match play, are being set back to allow more sidecourt space. The south fence has already been moved back four feet and work is now being done on the barrier on the north side which will be set out ten feet. Dr. Kleinheksel also states that plans are to construct a bench along the north side of the courts for the convenience of spectators.

This improvement will permit the Hope tennis team to play its intercollegiate matches on the campus for the first time in three years. Previously all matches have been played on the Holland Country Club courts. If work progresses rapidly it may be possible to play the Western State Frosh match next Friday on the college courts, where it may be viewed by students.

FROSH PLAYERS IN NET TOURNAY

Under the supervision of Coach Kleinheksel a freshman tennis tournament has been started to determine the best yearling player.

Matches are being played this week and the winner will be selected as the one with the best record. This is not an elimination tournament, but is the type in which each entry plays every other entry and the player losing the least matches during the course of the tournament is declared the winner.

Entries are: E. Buys, A. Cook, H. De Pree, S. Hulse, E. Faber, M. Klow, R. Siersema, P. Vanden Berge, R. Van Tatenhove, and D. Visser.

HOPE NETMEN DEFEATED AT KALAMAZOO

The Western State Teachers College freshman tennis team gave an exhibition of varsity material when they whipped the Hope racketeers 5 to 2 in a match at Kalamazoo last Friday afternoon.

In their victory the Western boys bested Coach Kleinheksel's first 3 ranking players decisively, while losing only one singles match and a doubles encounter. The setbacks for the Kazooks came in the lower rated matches, those of fifth singles and the No. 2 doubles. By smooth stroking the yearlings easily subdued the Dutchmen.

The match was played as a preliminary to the Western State varsity-University of Illinois battle. A return engagement to be played in Holland is scheduled for next Friday, when the Hopemen will have an opportunity to take revenge. If the courts are in shape at that time the match will probably take place on the campus courts.

The summary: Fisher (W) d. Vanden Belt (H) 6-0, 6-2; Kline (W) d. Visscher (H) 6-1, 6-0; Smith (W) d. Leland (H) 6-2, 6-4; Brown (W) d. Lindsey (H) 7-5, 6-4; Vande Poel (H) d. Payne (W) 6-0, 6-4. Doubles: Fisher-Kline (W) d. Vanden Belt-Leland (H) 6-3, 6-2; Visscher-Lindsey (H) d. Payne-Dexter (W) 6-1, 6-2.

TIMMER LOW FOR THIRD MATCH

By EARL VANDE POEL

With the loss of but one-half point the Hope golfers drubbed the golf team from Hillsdale yesterday afternoon at the Holland Country Club course, and are now pointing for the match with Kalamazoo who is supposed to be the leading contender with Hope for first honors in the M.I.A.A. race.

Under the Nassau system of scoring, which awards one point for each nine holes and one point for the best score on the total eighteen in the individual matches, the Dutch quartet captured 11½ points out of a possible 12 for its second win in conference competition after defeating Albion 8 to 4 in its first match. The Hope team will attempt to take the lead Saturday when it plays its hardest match of the season against Kalamazoo over the Kazook course. To match the record of Hope the Hornets have beaten Albion by the same score as Hope, and have given Olivet a drubbing.

In yesterday's match Coach Hinga's boys had little trouble in disposing of Hillsdale. McIntosh, playing No. 3 man for Hillsdale, saved his team from a shutout by taking one-half a point from Kruizenga. For the third time in three matches Ben Timmer, Hope's ace, got low score for the match with an 81 and took all three points from his opponent. Scholten and Paalman followed suit with three points apiece to give Hope a decisive victory.

Summary: Timmer (H.) d. Parker (Hill.) 3-0; Paalman (H.) d. Reynolds (Hill.) 3-0; Kruizenga (H.) d. McIntosh (Hill.) 2½-½; Scholten (H.) d. Bibbert (Hill.) 3-0.

Social News

A formal dinner was given by the Blue Key on April 18. Edward Damson was the toastmaster, and Harvey Scholten gave the first toast. After this Jim Netting sang, accompanied by Kenneth Hicks. Andy Dalman gave a humorous paper, after which the Blue Keys and their guests went to a show.

The Delphians and Cosmopolitans held their annual meeting at the Cosmopolitan House on April 20. The theme carried out in the program was that of an auto tour. Devotions were led by Bea Visser. One of the Cosmopolitans entertained the group with his music, followed by a serious paper by Julia Walvoord. A humorous paper was read by Kenneth Karsten, and Emily Evans and Renetta Shackson put on a skit. The meeting concluded with refreshments.

The S.G.A. decided to do their spring house-cleaning at their meeting on April 23. It was held in Voorhees Hall and opened with a humorous dialogue between Edith De Young and Esther Harris. Anna Edwards read a humor paper, followed by a fashion show. A skit was given by Jean Bosman and Anne Jackson. Then the Gold Dust Twins, Julia Walvoord and Marie Verduin, sang for the group.

The Juniors of Sibylline put on a program for the society on April 20. They took the girls to Hollywood and watched a picture in the process of being made. The Pathe News was given by Graham McNamee. Mickey and Minnie Mouse were presented and then the comedy starring Slim Summerville and Zazu Pitts. The feature of the evening was "Oh, Auntie!" performed by Greta Garbo, Ramon Navarro, Louise Fazenda, and Polly Moran. After this program punch and wafers were served to the girls.

Treats have been in vogue lately for the Hope sororities. The new Sorosis officers treated the members of their society with a luncheon after the play, "The Perfect Alibi," which they attended in a body. The Sibylline officers treated last Thursday with ice cream. Vera Holle and Ruth Mulder treated the Delphians the same night, the occasion being the announcement of their engagements.

The Anchor Staff was entertained at a tea by Prof. and Mrs. Deckard Ritter at their meeting last Wednesday. After the refreshments Editor Murray K. Rogers conducted the business meeting.

Mrs. Durfee and the seniors of Voorhees entertained the gentlemen friends of the young ladies at a tea last Thursday at 4 o'clock.

Because of the great deal of yawning among some of the Senior girls last Friday, inquiries were made and it was discovered that after the Frater-Cosmopolitan serenade, a number of them had a "spread" in one of the rooms at Voorhees and were, no doubt, up later than they should have been.

Professor Timmer's Latin class enjoyed a social evening in Paul Webinga's room in the Seminary Hall last Monday.

Miss Meyer entertained her piano class and few guests last Wednesday evening.

PHI TAU NU BOYS SERENADE GIRLS

With a hazy moon, red flares and the accompanying notes of an organ, the Emersonian society gathered around the log cabin Friday, April 20, and blended its voices together in "Drifting and Dreaming," telling the many sleepy girls in Voorhees Hall that a midnight show had commenced.

Girls with anything that came in their grasp in way of covers leaned from the many windows bordering the court—even peering from one in the dining room—and listened intently as a fast moving program got under way with a quartet composed of Bill Ripley, Kobby Klassen, Howard Kronmeyer and Larry De Cook got together for "Down By the Old Mill Stream," followed by Kronmeyer rendering a selection on his guitar and mouth organ. Then B. J. Hoffman, Bert Bossenbroek, and "Howie" sang, in typical country manner, "I'm Leaving on the Noon River Train."

Again the entire company banded together for "Old Black Joe," and then "Home on the Range" was given by the quartet. At this point "Emmy's Strolling Vagabond," Bill Vander Ven, made "Moonlight Madonna" seem real for five minutes and pleased his listeners again with "Wagon Wheels." "Let Me Call You Sweetheart" was sung by all, with many putting in additional tremors as they saw their hooded vision leaning from the window, and with the strains of the Fraternity song the midnight intruders slowly slipped away, leaving the

CHICAGO SCHOOL ACCEPTS PRE-MEDS

Hope college has again been honored by having two of its students accepted for the coming year at Rush Medical school in Chicago.

The two are Paul Klein, who is from Orange City, Ia., where he attended Orange City Junior College during his first two years; and the other is Gerald B. Demarest, junior from Passaic, N. J. He will take a summer course to qualify him for entrance next fall.

Each year Rush Medical school accepts a small number of students from all colleges in the country, and Hope ranks high in acceptances, as from two to five of her graduates qualify each year.

CHEMISTRY CLUB

John Vanden Belt, president of the Chemistry club, is making arrangements for the club to visit the Dow Chemical Company at Midland, Michigan, on May 11.

One of the products of this plant is the famous Dow metal, which is used in stratosphere balloons. The club will also visit the General Motors proving grounds at Milford, if time permits.

Every member of the Chemistry club is expected to take the trip. Dr. Kleinheksel will accompany them.

A hazy moon again the only observer as the forms in the windows reluctantly withdrew.

Y. M. C. A. Secretary Is Chapel Speaker

The Hope college student body was addressed yesterday morning by Mr. Fred B. Freeman, executive secretary of the Michigan Y.M.C.A. Mr. Freeman gave a most interesting talk emphasizing the challenge that faces the youth of today.

Asking the questions "What do you want for life?" and "What are you willing to give for it?" the speaker pictured the differences in the lives of men who work hard and strive for a goal, and those who spend their time "playing with their dog." Mr. Freeman then spoke on the meaning of education from the standpoint of a Christian, asking his audience if education to them meant "Greater love hath no man than this, that he lay down his life for his friends."

In concluding his talk, Mr. Freeman challenged the student body by telling them of the infinite sacrifice made by forty Roman soldiers who refused to burn incense in homage to Caesar, and then asked the question: "Dare you dedicate your life to Jesus?"

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

The past two Sunday nights the Girls' Glee club brought itself into the limelight again by presenting concerts at the Methodist church of this city and Hope church. The program consisted of a trio of numbers, "Tarry With Me," by Salter; "A Mercy of Peace," by Kastolsky, and "Psalm 150," by Franck. Jean Bosman was at the piano.

The Hope Biology club met Thursday, April 26. Dr. O. Vander Velde spoke on some of his experiences in surgery, and Roy Chaters showed slides of one of the plans on which he is working.
